

Advanced Russian aircraft at Farnborough

At the 2014 Farnborough International Airshow, to be held in Farnborough, UK, July 14-20, Rosoboronexport (part of Rostec State Corporation) will present Russian aircraft that are in demand on the global market.

“We traditionally participate in this prestigious air show and try to present the latest products and the most promising export models here. Presentations of combat helicopters and airplanes for delegations from the Middle East, Latin American and Southeast Asian countries have been scheduled. We also plan to emphasize technology and industrial cooperation with our European partners,”- said Sergey Kornev, Head of Rosoboronexport’s Air Force Equipment Export Department, who leads the company’s delegation at the exhibition.

Rosoboronexport expects keen interest from foreign delegations in the super-agile Su-35 multi-role fighter, MiG-29M/M2 multifunctional frontline fighters, Yak-130 combat training aircraft, Il-76MD-90A military transport aircraft, Mi-35M, Mi-28NE and Ka-52 attack helicopters, aircraft weapons.

Talks to be held with leading European manufacturers will involve such issues as R&D activities carried out by Russian organizations, joint projects on the international market on behalf of third countries, as well as the prospects for further expanding ties and strengthening mutually beneficial cooperation.

Rosoboronexport, a subsidiary of the Rostec Corporation, is the sole state-owned arms trade company in the Russian Federation authorized to export the full range of military and dual-purpose products, technologies and services.
