

AK202

Great Performance Runs in the Family

Legendary AK platform with up-to-date solutions in 5.56mm caliber is a great alternative to standard selection of Small Arms in that caliber and short barrel provides great mobility for the operator on the battlefield.

The 5.56mm AK202 short-barrel Kalashnikov assault rifle is an outreach to the wider international market with a more common European caliber and enhanced mobility due to barrel length and folding buttstock.

A successful attempt to merge Russian reliability and serviceability with 5.56x45 ammunition. All the modern design solutions, which are integral features of the AK200th iteration, are implemented in the AK202. This Assault Rifle provides new first-hand experience for the operators limited by NATO caliber. It's an extremely reliable weapon and due to chrome-lined elements withstands temperature fluctuation and other environment impacts.

Compact size and considerable firepower make AK202 really handy for vehicle crews Law-enforcement and Special Forces units.
