

GSh-18

Perfection itself

Highest armor-piercing capacity, record-low weight and large number of rounds.

- ▶ high accuracy of fire;
- ▶ firing from either hand;
- ▶ reduced weight and long service life.

The 9mm GSh-18 pistol is designed for close combat. A high power cartridge and a high capacity double-column magazine, which doesn't shuffle cartridges, make the pistol reliable and effective.

An automatic safety catch ensures safety coupled with a high level of fire readiness. The pistol may be fitted with a laser designator.

The 9x19mm pistol cartridge (7N31) with armor-piercing bullet makes the pistol effective against body-armored personnel (wearing armor vests)
